

Beech at Theydon

(Fagus sylvatica) Tree Warden Jane Turner

“Situating on the forest walk, just off the ride that goes up from The Plain at Theydon, this is a fine specimen with a large round root bole at the base.”

“This Beech is in an area of the forest where many trees were blown down in the great storm of 1987 and is one of the lucky survivors.”

Jane Turner,
local tree warden

